A winner of Fashion Group International of Dallas' (FGI of Dallas) Rising Star in Interior Design Award, Shay is inspired by fashion, traveling, the arts, family & friends. Her passion for interiors & interior products makes creating beautiful spaces for clients her true dream career. Mostly known for her use of color, pattern & texture – clients rave about her ability to transform a house into a welcoming happy home. Each of her designs infuse unique elements tailored specifically for the client and offer comfortable, family-friendly living. Her portfolio ranges from commercial spaces to residential projects across the country including high rises & sprawling estates. Shay's vibrant personality & personal approach to design often land her high-profile & lifelong clients who trust her not only with their primary homes, but also vacation homes around the world. She recently completed a G4 private jet for a client including all design elements down to the custom seating, flooring, walls and even the details on the custom china!

Shay is the editor of IBB Design's quarterly magazine, IBB at Home. The Shay Geyer Collection debuted in 2017 and includes art, permanent botanicals, pillows, rugs, mirrors, & wallpaper. She is one of five distinguished design talents to create the Portfolio by Nourison high-end area rug collection. Her designs have been featured in several publications and have won numerous industry awards.

“IBB Design Fine Furnishings was founded by my favorite dynamic women -- my mom, Beth Rafferty, more than 30 years ago. It's such a privilege & a joy to work alongside her on a daily basis.”
